PREFATORY NOTE

The following list of the principal manuscripts in the New York state library, originally prepared by the late archivist, George R. Howell, has been enlarged and a partial bibliography added by Charles A. Flagg, sub-librarian (history). The arrangement is chronologic in the order in which the manuscripts were added to the library. For convenience of reference the different collections have been numbered consecutively and the titles given are those lettered on the backs of the volumes. Where these seem inexact or misleading, additional information is given in a note. In the bibliography each entry is followed by the New York state library call number. Volume and page numbers are separated by a colon; e. g. 6:170 means vol. 6, p. 170. Special thanks are due to Henry Harmon Noble of the state historian's office who kindly placed his valuable notes on the manuscripts at the disposal of the library as an aid in compiling this bulletin.

1846

- 1 Proceedings Albany committee of correspondence, 1775-78.
2 v.

Bought from the descendants of Matthew Visscher.

1848

- 2 Colonial laws

Manuscript colonial laws, about 175 in number, dated 1691 to 1725 and engrossed on large folio sheets of parchment, often several acts on a sheet. A list of these acts in the library in 1855 is given in the catalogue of the law library for that year.

1853

7 George Clinton papers. 52 v.

These papers contain material for a military history of the revolutionary war, mentioning the movements of the enemy, mostly within the state, and the counter movements of the patriot forces to defeat the plans of the British. The papers in the first 23 volumes were bought in 1853, the legislature, on July 21, appropriating $2500 for that purpose, and $500 for arranging, indexing and binding.

In 1883 a large number of additional manuscripts was bought, from which v. 24-38 were calendared and bound under the supervision of George W. Clinton. v. 39-48 are chiefly land papers which have been bound since as follows:

v. 39	New York city	v. 46	Delaware co.
v. 40-42	Kayaderosseras	v. 47	Various counties
v. 43-44	Dutchess co.	v. 48-49	Miscellaneous
v. 45	Fonda and Oriskany patents	v. 50-52	Deeds and maps

For reports by George W. Clinton as editor in charge of the work of arranging and indexing the Clinton manuscripts, see Annual report of the New York state library, 1882, 64: 145-48; 1883, 65: 10-14; 1884, 66: 15-21; 1885, 67: 19-31. For report on the Clinton papers by H. A. Homes, see Annual report of the New York state library, 1886, 68: 11-12.

v. 1-3 are in press as appendix N of Annual report of the state historian of the state of New York, 1898, v. 3.

8 André' papers. 12 manuscripts

These papers were found in Major André's boots when captured by Paulding, Van Wart and Williams, Sep. 23, 1780, on his way from West Point to New York. They contain detailed information in regard to the forts, batteries, etc. at West Point, account of numbers and location of its defenders, passes from Benedict Arnold, etc.

These manuscripts were originally included in the Clinton papers (see no. 7) but are now mounted and framed as a separate collection. They are printed in B. J. Lossing, Pictorial fieldbook of the revolution, N. Y. 1852, 2: 153-56; also in H. B. Dawson, Papers concerning the capture and detention of Major John André, Yonkers 1866, p. 51-62, and in Robert Bolton, History of the county of Westchester, N. Y. 1848, 1: 215-23.

1856

9 New York legislative papers. 13 v. and index 1 v.

This is part of a collection of papers relating to academies, bridges, counties, courts, currency, insolvency, lands, provisions and taxes, 1780-1803. The papers were formerly in the hands of Abraham B. Bancker, clerk of the senate, and were found in a farm house near Kingston about 1855. In 1856 the regents were directed to procure and arrange them.

1859

10 New York legislative papers. Unbound

These are papers which have come before the New York legislature since 1778, being reports of elections, petitions of individuals, towns and corporations for legislative action on schools, colleges, railroads, canals, etc. They are in packages arranged chronologically. About half the collection is stored in 450 file boxes.

These papers have been deposited in the state library from time to time according to New York laws of 1859, ch. 321 § 1 as follows :

The manuscript or printed papers of the legislature, usually termed "on file" and which have been on file for a longer period than five years, in the custody of the clerks of the senate and assembly, and all other public records of the state, not in the custody of some public officer, shall hereafter be placed in charge of the regents of the University.

For a selection, made in 1831, of the most important papers, see no. 50.

1863

See also no. 5 under 1850

11 New York assembly journals, 1699, 1700, 1740, 1766-7

Title-page: "The missing journals of the New-York colonial assembly, 1693-1775, procured for the state of New York under an appropriation made by the legislature in 1863, by George Henry Moore, librarian of the New York historical society, N. Y. 1863." $500 was appropriated for the purchase of this volume Ap. 23, 1863. It supplies the journals of the following sessions: Ap. 20-May 16, 1699; July 25-Oct. 29, 1700; June 30-July 12, 1740; June 11-July 3, 1766; Nov. 10-Dec. 19, 1766; May 27-June 6, 1767; Nov. 23-24, 1767. These are wanting in Journal of the votes and proceedings of the general assembly of the colony of New York began the 9th day of April 1691 and ended the 23d of Dec. 1765, 2v., N. Y.

1764-66, and Journal of the votes and proceedings of the general assembly of the colony of New-York from 1766 to 1776, Alb. 1820.

Assembly journals of the following dates are still wanting: 1683, 1684, 1685, Ap. 20-29, 1692, Oct. 26-Nov. 9, 1692 and Ap. 4-10, 1693.

1865

12 Emancipation proclamation

This is the original draft of the first proclamation by Pres. Lincoln Sep. 22, 1862 of the emancipation of the slaves in the seceded states unless the said states laid down their arms within 100 days. The manuscript was presented to the Albany relief bazaar in February 1864 and brought the sum of $1100 to its funds. It became the property of Gerrit Smith who gave it to the United States sanitary commission. In 1865 it was bought by vote of the legislature for $1000 and ordered to be deposited in the state library. The second proclamation actually freeing the slaves was burned in the great Chicago fire, October 1871.

1868

13 Signers of the declaration of independence

Autograph letters or signatures of the signers of the declaration of independence with their portraits, originally bought for $800, but now with later additions, valued at $20,000.

The material in this volume was chiefly collected by J. K. Tefft of Savannah, Ga. After his death the volume was sold at auction in New York Mar. 4, 1867 to E. French of whom it was bought by the state.

1873

14 Washington relics

These were obtained of Mrs Lewis W. Washington, the widow of a grandnephew of George Washington, through a special appropriation of $20,000, made by the legislature Ap. 26, 1871. Besides the dress sword given to Washington by Frederick the Great, a pistol from Lafayette, Washington's watch chain and seals and his surveying instruments, there are three papers: First draft of the Farewell address; Opinion of the surviving generals of the revolution (printed in Magazine of American history, 1879, 3:81-88); Tabulated statement of household expenses in 1789.

This purchase included also a quarto volume of 205 leaves: Description of the clothing of his majesty's bands of gentlemen pensioners, yeomen of the guards, and regiments of foot-guards, foot, marines and invalids on the establishments of Great-Britain and Ireland; anno 1742.

The work, containing 101 hand-colored pictures showing the costume of the British regiments, was executed by order of William, duke of Cumberland and a few sets presented to the most illustrious military characters in Europe. This copy was given by the duke to John Pine who engraved it, and was presented by his son Robert Edge Pine to Gen. Washington at Philadelphia, Sep. 17, 1787. Only two other copies are known, one in the British museum, the other in the library of the Prince consort at Aldershot.

See "List of memorial relics of George Washington, with descriptive notes" in Annual report of the New York state library, 1874, 56: 139-46.

1875

15 Henry Stevens papers

Among these are papers relating to the question of jurisdiction between this state and Vermont over Cumberland and Gloucester counties and the New Hampshire land grants; the Susquehanna lands in the western part of New York; the French and Indian wars of 1745-56, including the battle of Lake George; the war of 1812; the papers of Ethan Allen, Ira Allen and Governors Jenison and Tichenor; with a great variety of miscellaneous papers of a private nature. The collection, which is not yet arranged, was bought for $2000.

1876?

16 New York patents; original drafts. 6v.

These patents convey land to towns and individuals from 1680 to 1751. They were bought in London about 1876 by Dr Henry A. Homes.

1878

17 Dearborn's mission from Mass. to the Senecas and Tuscaroras, 1838-39. 3v.

Title-page reads: "Journal of a mission to the Seneca and Tuscarora Indians and an account of the treaties held with those tribes in the years 1838 and 1839 for the sale of their lands and for their emigration west of the Mississippi river, by H. A. S. Dearborn, superintendent of Massachusetts."

These manuscripts were bought in Boston, October 1878, at a sale of the collection of J. W. Thornton for about $60.

See H. A. Homes, Account of the manuscripts of Gen. Dearborn, read before the Albany institute Oct. 12th, 1880, Alb. 1881.

1879

- 18 New York, Philadelphia centennial exhibition. Register of visitors, 1876. 3v.

This register was transferred to the state library by the commissioners, May 1879.

1881

The following manuscripts (no. 19-70) were among those transferred to the state library from the offices of the secretary of state and comptroller according to New York laws of 1881, ch. 120.

No. 20-39 were in the office of the secretary of state in 1820; also the old series of Dutch records which were rebound in first 21 volumes of no. 19, and the loose papers which were mounted to form v. 22-103 of the same series.

- 19 New York colonial mss. 103v.

These volumes contain papers of the executive department of the colonial government on a great variety of topics, among which are records of civil suits at law involving settlement of conflicting land claims, criminal trials, petitions, commissions, proclamations, memoranda of marriage licenses, appointments to civil and military offices, correspondence in the Dutch period with the West India company and the states general of the Netherlands and with other American colonies, muster rolls of colonial troops previous to the revolutionary war, census rolls of 1698, and papers in general relating to cases needing governmental interference to obtain a peaceful settlement, all illustrating the civil and political history of the colony from 1638 to 1783. These manuscripts were arranged and bound under the supervision of E. B. O'Callaghan about 1850.

For a list of the papers in the first 101 volumes see Calendar of historical manuscripts in the office of the secretary of state, Albany, N. Y., edited by E. B. O'Callaghan, 2v., Alb. 1865-66. This calendar contains: v. 1, Dutch manuscripts, v. 1-21, 1630-64; v. 2, English manuscripts, v. 22-101, 1664-1776. Not included in this calendar, are: v. 102 and 103 of the "New York colonial mss;" i. e. v. 102, "Clinton, Jay, with New York and Massachusetts boundary papers;" v. 103, "New York and Massachusetts boundary, concluded."

Dutch manuscripts, v. 1-21

The 21 volumes of Dutch manuscripts are the official records of the colony and in them were rebound 46 old volumes of Dutch records. For a list of these volumes see Report of the secretary of state relative to the records, &c. in his office, 1820. The contents of the 21 volumes are as follows:

- v. 1-3 Register of the provincial secretary, 1638-62
- v. 4-10 Council minutes, 1638-65
- v. 11-15 Correspondence of the director-general, 1638-55
- v. 16 Placards, writs and Fort Orange records
- v. 17 Curaçao papers
- v. 18-21 Delaware papers

The state library has a translation of most of the Dutch manuscripts in these volumes by Francis A. Van der Kemp, in 24 manuscript volumes. v. 1-4 of the Dutch manuscripts were also translated by E. B. O'Callaghan who also compiled an index of the first three volumes which was printed under title Index to volumes 1, 2 and 3 of translations of Dutch manuscripts in the office of the secretary of state of the state of New York, Alb. 1870. v. 4 has a manuscript index.

The ordinances and regulations of the Dutch government were selected and translated from the first 21 volumes by E. B. O'Callaghan and printed as Laws and ordinances of New Netherland, 1638-1674, Alb. 1868.

English manuscripts, v. 22-103

The volumes of English manuscripts contain only the letters, petitions, reports, etc. which were submitted to the colonial executive. The official records of that branch of the government may be found in the volumes of "General entries," "Council minutes," etc. See no. 21, 23.

The 4 volumes of Documentary history of the state of New York, Alb. 1849-51, together with v. 12-14 of Documents relative to the colonial history of the state of New York, Alb. 1877-83, contain many documents printed from this series.

v. 22 of the manuscripts was printed entire in Annual report of the state historian of the state of New York, 1897, 2: 133-369.

v. 23 and 24 were printed in Annual report of the state historian, 1898, 3: 159-435 except "Minutes of council of the administrations of Commanders Evertson and Benckes and of Anthony Colve, governor of New Netherland, 1673 and 1674" (which was printed in Documents relative to the colonial history of the state of New York, 2: 569-730); and some Dutch patents, not translated.

The muster rolls and military commissions of the colony from 1664 down to the revolution, included in v. 22-101 of the "New York colonial mss" are printed with a complete index in Annual report of the state historian of the state of New York, 1897, 2: 371-956; and 1898, 3: 437-898 (in press). The muster rolls of the "old French war," 1755-63, have been printed in New York historical society, Collections, publication fund series, 1891, v. 24.

20 Dutch patents. 2 v. and index 1 v.

GG, 1636-1649

HH, 1654-1664

Index; Account of Dutch records; alphabetical index of the two Dutch books of Provincial patents, GG and HH.

Volumes GG and HH were no. 34 and 35 in a set of 48 volumes of Dutch records, listed in 1820 by J. V. N. Yates in Report of the secretary of state relative to the records, &c. in his office, 1820. The other 46 volumes were arranged and bound about 1850 by E. B. O'Callaghan as the first 21 volumes of "New York colonial mss."

Manuscript translations of these volumes by James Van Ingen are in the secretary of state's office.

21 General entries. 4 v. and indexes 4 v.

v. 1 General entries, 1664-65

v. 4 " 1671-74

v. 32 " 1678-80

v. 33 Entries, 1682-83

v. 1 has been printed by the state library as History bulletin 2. The preface contains a description of the volume.
See last paragraph under no. 23.

22 Court of assize, 1665-1672. iv. and index iv.

Numbered 2.

See last paragraph under no. 23.

23 Council minutes. 28 v.

v. 3 1668-78

v. 5-31 1683-1776

Beginning with the first regular colonial legislature, convened in 1691 by Gov. Sloughter, the council became a legislative body, co-ordinate with the assembly. Its legislative minutes have been printed as the Journal of the legislative council of the colony of New York begun the 9th day of Ap. 1691 and ended the 3d day of Ap. 1775, 2 v., Alb. 1861.

In v. 6-8, the executive and legislative minutes are kept separate, the latter at the end of each volume. v. 6 contains also the minutes of the council in its judicial capacity 1687-88, and v. 7, proceedings of the court of Oyer and Terminer, 1679-85.

In v. 9-17, 1702-36, the two functions were mingled and the minutes printed as legislative have been marked by a pen or pencil line in the margin.

v. 18, 20, 22, 24, 27, 28 and 30 contain only legislative minutes and were printed entire, as also some minutes of 1775-76, found in v. 26.

This set as described in Report of the secretary of state relative to the records etc. in his office, 1820, is called Colonial council minutes and General entries, 33 v. and includes the 5 volumes of no. 21 and 22 (excluding indexes).

24 Commissions. 4 v.

v. 1 1680, 1683

v. 2 1686, 1702

v. 4 1762, 1772

v. 5 1751, 1770

v. 3, containing appointments in French and Indian war is now missing.

v. 6-38 of this series, "Records of commissions," are in the secretary of state's office.

no. 25-37

In no. 25-37 which follow, the books bearing volume numbers belonged to a set of 32 volumes called "Miscellaneous records" mentioned in Report of the secretary of state relative to the records, etc. in his office, 1820.

v. 1 Letters and other documents in Gov. Stuyvesant's time from 1647 to 1664 (in English) was included in "New York colonial mss" v. 1-21 when that set was made up about 1850 (see no. 19).

25 Orders, warrants, etc. 3v. and indexes 3v.

v. 2 Orders, warrants, letters, 1665-1669

v. 3 Warrants, orders, passes, etc. 1674, 1679

Orders, warrants, etc. 1680 to 1682

26 Pass book, 1680, 1691. 1v. and index 1v.

Numbered 4

27 Licenses, warrants, etc. 2 v.

v. 5 1686, 1702

v. 6 1702, 1712

28 Treasury warrants. 6 v.

v. 7 Treasury warrants 1702, 1703

v. 2-14 of this set are in the secretary of state's office.

39 Translations from the Dutch, 1638-74. 28v.

These are translations, by Francis A. Van der Kemp of the Dutch records now included in v. 1-21 of "New York colonial mss" (see no. 19) and were made in accordance with an act of the legislature passed in 1804. Most of the volumes of Dutch records were still in Van der Kemp's hands for translation in 1819.

40 Indian traders' bonds, 1765-71. 2v.

The royal proclamation of Oct. 7, 1763 regulating the trade of the Indians, required all persons who wished to go into the Indian country to trade, to execute a bond.

These manuscripts, including about 400 bonds, were arranged and bound about 1850 under the supervision of E. B. O'Callaghan.

41 Marriage bonds, 1672-1784. 41v.

The first 40 volumes were arranged and bound under the supervision of E. B. O'Callaghan about 1850, and are indexed in Names of persons for whom marriage licenses were issued by the secretary of the province of New York, 1860. For index to v. 41 which was bound by the state in 1897 see Supplementary list of marriage licenses, 1898, printed by the state library as History bulletin 1.

42 The duke's laws, 1664

The state library copy was certified by M. Wren, secretary of the duke of York, as "concordat cum originale."

The copy preserved at Easthampton, which differs in some respects, is printed in Colonial laws of New York, transmitted to the legislature by the commissioners of statutory revision, Alb. 1896, 1:6-100; also in Collections of the New York historical society, N. Y. 1811, 1:305-97.

43 Dongan's laws, 1683, 1684

Containing the acts passed by the first general assembly of the province, 1683-84.

These laws, supplemented by manuscript originals in the secretary of state's office, were printed in Colonial laws of New York, transmitted to the legislature by the commissioners of statutory revision, Alb. 1896, 1:111-73.

44 Bills which failed to become laws, 1685-1770, New York provincial legislature. 3v.*45 Minutes of the provincial congress, provincial convention, committee of safety and council of safety, 1775-1778. 10v.

These bodies formed the government of the state from 1775 to 1778, when Gen. George Clinton was elected the first governor.

The legislature on Ap. 11, 1804 passed an act authorizing the governor to procure a copy of the minutes (see no. 48). John McKesson who was employed to transcribe them reported the work still in progress Aug. 19, 1819. The minutes were printed with an index as v. 1 of Journals of the provincial congress, provincial convention, committee of safety and council of safety of the state of New York, Alb. 1842.

46 Revolutionary papers, 1775-77. 12 v.

71 D. D. Tompkins papers. 15 v.

These papers of Gov. Tompkins cover the period of the war with England in 1812-15 and throw much light on the history of the state in this war. There are 15 bound volumes besides a quantity of loose papers and letters sufficient to make as many more volumes when arranged. They were bought from the heirs of Gov. Tompkins for $5000. See the paper by H. A. Homes, "On the correspondence of Gov. D. D. Tompkins (1808-1824) lately acquired by the state, with some notes on his life," printed in Transactions of the Albany institute, 1887, 11: 223-40.

A chronologic list of v. 5-10 ("Letters received, v. A-F") has been printed under the title List of letters received by the late Gov. Tompkins between the years 1807 and 1817.

v. 11-13, which are devoted exclusively to military subjects from 1800 to 1816, are printed entire by the state historian as Public papers of Daniel D. Tompkins, governor of New York, 1807-17; Military, v. 1, Alb. 1898.

1887

72 Usselincx manuscripts, 1606-46. 3 v.

The papers in v. 1 and 3 were bought in 1887 from J. F. Jameson of Baltimore for $45 and bound in the library; those in v. 2 were bought in 1884 of Henry C. Murphy for $75.

Willem Usselincx, an exile from Belgium, was preeminent among the founders of the Dutch East and West India companies. There are 50 printed publications from his pen from 1606 to 1644, nearly all of them having reference to the establishment and success of these companies.

For a list of unpublished writings of Usselincx, nearly all of which are in this collection, see Papers of the American historical association, 1888, 2: 213-20. This list was compiled by J. F. Jameson.

73 French papers

These consist of about 2000 folio pages of manuscript copied from the archives of France for the state library, $800 having been appropriated by the legislature May 9, 1888 for this purpose. This collection contains papers on the early French settlements in Canada and Louisiana; the discovery of the mouth of the Mississippi river; the expedition to Darien in 1698; the French colonies in America in 1720; also journal of John Paul Jones in the revolutionary war; the squadron of Count d'Estaing in the same war; letters of Washington, Lafayette, Baron de Kalb and others during the same period and other historical matters relating to America.

For partial list of these papers, see Annual report of the New York state library, 1889, v. 71, pref. p. 13-14.

74 Suffolk county regiment, 1776

Title page : "Official copy of military papers of Col. Josiah Smith of the town of Brookhaven, Suffolk co. Long Island; being the returns of the companies forming the Suffolk county regiment of minute men 1776; which papers are owned by the lineal descendants of Col. Smith; and now by John Conklin Havens of East Moriches loaned to the state library for the purpose of being copied by George Rogers Howell, archivist, Oct. 1, 1894."

75 Visitors' register New York state building, World's Columbian exposition, Jackson park, Chicago, Ill., 1893. 2 v.

Miscellaneous dates

76 Manuscripts, miscellaneous. 13 v.

These volumes were made up in the library from manuscripts added at various times.

77 Commissions, military and civil

This volume contains original military commissions in the revolutionary war, bearing the state arms.

78 Census

About 650 volumes of the state census reports, being the original work of the state enumerators, in folio, 1801-92, the earlier volumes incomplete. These volumes were placed in the state library by the different secretaries of state.

79 Register, state capitol. 9 v.

Contains signatures of visitors to the capitol, 1883-94. These volumes were placed in the library by the superintendent of the capitol.
